MISS ELEANOR HOLLAND, MISS LENA YALDEN
Librarian, JANE P. HUBBELL

Library Hours

The Library is open daily (except Sundays and legal holidays) from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

The Reading and Reference Rooms are open on Sundays and legal holidays, from 2 P. M. to 5 P. M.

The Children's Room is open from 2 P. M. to 6 P. M., Saturdays from 9 A. M. to 8:30 P. M.

The hours at Seventh St. Branch are the same as at the Main Library.

Information for Borrowers

The library contains more than 53,000 volumes, and about 2500 new volumes are added each year. During the past fiscal year the circulation of books for home use was more than 163,000 volumes. Over 10,000 persons now hold cards entitling them to library privileges.

Any resident of Rockford or Rockford township is entitled to borrow books, by signing the prescribed application and agreement. Persons residing outside of the city limits must have their applications signed by a responsible citizen as guarantor. Persons residing in Winnebago county outside of Rockford township may borrow books upon payment of two dollars per year.

Ask for what you don't see

Do not leave the library without getting the information you desire whether you are looking for some special book or for information on some subject. If you are not familiar with the use of the card catalogue, do not hesitate to ask the assistants at the desk to explain it to you. It is their business and pleasure to give readers every possible aid. Most questions can be easily answered, and if you do not find what you want, ask for it.

OF THE

Rockford Public Library

VOL. 5

JANUARY, 1926

No. 1

NOTES FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT

Each year the Public Library increases its book stock and lends more books to more people; keeping pace with, and a little ahead of the growth of the city.

New books added during the year numbered 6287, but 2402 were worn out and withdrawn, leaving the net gain 3865, making the total number of volumes in the main library and its branches 93,821.

The home circulation was 347,419, an average of more than five books lent to every citizen, but as only twenty-five per cent of the citizens are registered borrowers, they read on an average nineteen volumes each.

The adult department of the main library showed an increase of nearly ten thousand volumes, most of which was of books other than fiction. This is partly the result of more personal attention and assistance now given to the individual borrower in his selection of books.

Circulation through the branches and stations was forty-six per cent of the whole; Rowland Branch leading with 58,684, about evenly divided between adult and juvenile. At the other branches children's books averaged about seventy per cent.

The circulation of children's books from all agencies was 180,681 or fifty-two per cent of the total home use of books. Children are the library's best readers, and this large number of books was read by 6867 children, or an average of twenty-six books for each child.

There were 6070 borrower's cards issued making the total number of library patrons 18,351, of which children are thirty-seven per cent.

ART ROOM

The Library increased its service to the public by opening a room on the second floor devoted especially to art books, where about 3,100 volumes on all phases of art are shelved. These include many expensive illustrated books which are for reference use only, but seventy-five per cent of the collection is available for home use. There are twenty-five current periodicals on file on the various arts, as architecture, music, painting, etc.

The picture collection will be enlarged and developed to better meet the needs of the schools and the public, and special attention will be given to all phases of commercial art.

All of the books about music and many bound volumes of music are on the shelves and it is hoped that they will be increasingly useful to a large number of music students.

READING WITH A PURPOSE

To make your reading count read with a purpose. Read at the same time for enjoyment and recreation.

A new service is offered by your public library through the co-operation of the American Library Association and nationally known specialists. Courses for "Reading with a Purpose" have been prepared on many subjects—Biology, English literature, Ten pivotal figures of history, Sociology, American public opinion, Music, etc. Each is a brief introduction to its subject interestingly written, authoritative, easy to read. Each recommends a few books which will give a better understanding and appreciation of the subject.

The Library is prepared to lend the courses and the necessary books. Ask the librarian about "Reading with a Purpose."

No. 2-3

HAVE YOU READ THESE?

The Doctor Looks at Biography, by Joseph Collins. The doctor looks at some of the recent biographies and autobiographies, studying a hundred or more of them, making appreciative analyses of the writers as well as the subjects of the books considered.

My Life As An Explorer, by Sven Hedin. An autobiography which is also a thrilling travel book, recounting the author's experiences in his years of Asiatic exploration.

Recollections of Thomas R. Marshall. Readable and entertaining reminiscences, with a cheerful outlook on life, by the ex-Vice President.

Abraham Lincoln—the Prairie Years, by Carl Sandburg. Two volumes. A vivid, intimate biography of Lincoln's career previous to his presidency. It is in great demand, and our three copies are seldom in the library over night.

In the Days of My Father, General Grant, by Jesse R. Grant. An intimate family account, by the youngest son of President Grant.

The Intimate Papers of Colonel House. Two volumes. Pronounced by many critics the most interesting and valuable of all war books, and by Stewart Sherman as "Unique, astounding, well nigh incredible."

A NEW NEWSPAPER

The United States Daily is a new national newspaper, published at Washington D. C., which presents the only daily record of the official acts of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial branches of the Government. No other news is given. "All the facts—no opinion," is its slogan, and that is just what most of the people want. An index to all topics covered in each issue will be a great convenience to readers. Make the acquaintance of the new United States Daily, on file in the Reading Room.

PICTURE COLLECTION

The Library is indebted to several friends for pictures for its picture collection which is being developed in the Art Room. Donations of picture post cards will be welcomed, especially foreign cards and pictures of public buildings, monuments and places. Used cards can be utilized.
